

Metropolitan School District of North Posey

The Metropolitan School District of North Posey School Board is excited to present the results of their past three month's work on the core values, vision, mission, and high priorities! These draft statements were distributed to the community through a survey receiving over 200 responses with almost a 93% affirmation. On June 14, 2021, the School Board officially approved these statements as the roadmap to build upon the heritage of excellence in North Posey! The Administrative Team will develop goals and an action plan around these foundational statements to prepare our students for the 21st Century opportunities!
