MSD OF NORTH POSEY COUNTY

Executive Session Notice & Agenda

PLACE

MSD Of North Posey County Board Office
101 N Church Street, Poseyville IN 47633

DATE: Tuesday, January 31, 2023

TIME: 5:30 PM

Executive sessions may be held only in the following instances (IC 5-1)

(1) Where authorized by federal or state statute (2) For discussion of strategy with respect to any of the following: (A) Collective bargaining. (B) Initiation of litigation or litigation that is either pending or has been threatened specifically (C) The implementation of security systems. (I) A real property transaction including: (I) a purchase (II) a purchase (III) alease as lessor (IV) a transfer (V) an exchange; or (VI) an exchange; or (VI) an exchange; or (VI) an exchange; or (VI) a sale by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 36-1-10 or IC 36-1-11. (E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation or school safety and security measures, plans, and systems. (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by: (A) the indiana economic development corporation; (B) the office of turism development (hefire July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (G) the ports of Indiana (F) indiana businesses, or the development commission; a local economic development of agriculture; (G) the Indiana white River state park development commission; a local economic development of agriculture; (G) the Indiana white River state park development commission; a local economic development of agriculture; (G) the Indiana was the department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana was the department of agriculture; (G) to obtain a businesses, or the development of agriculture; (G) to obtain a businesses, or the development of agriculture; (G) to discuss before a placement declain, an individual salleaged mi	Executive sessions may be held only in the following instances (IC 5-14-1.5-6.1):
A  Collective bargaining.	X (1)	) Whe	ere authorized by federal or state statute
(8) Intitation of litigation or litigation that is either pending or has been threatened specifically (C). The implementation of security systems. (D) A real property transaction including: (i) a purchase (ii) a lease as lesser (iv) a nexchange; or (vi) a sales by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 36-1-10 or IC 36-1-11.  (E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by: (A) the indiana economic development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation; (B) the fifties of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation; (C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indiana; (E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana Minica River state park development commission; (a local economic development or prospective employees. (G) the Indiana Minica development or prospective employees. (H) primary purpose is the premotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development or generating body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information about and interview prospective employees. (B) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body in a jurisdiction: (A) to receive information about and interview prospective employees. (B) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual students abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (B) To discuss before a placement decision, an indivi	(2)	) For (	discussion of strategy with respect to any of the following:
(C) The implementation of security systems.  (D) A real property transaction including:  (i) a purchase (ii) a lease as lessor (iii) a lease as lessor (iii) a lease as lessor (iv) a transfer (V) an exchange, or (Vi) a sale by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 36-1-10 or IC 36-1-11.  (E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by: the office of tourism development corporation; the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (B) faire June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indianu; (E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana Mile River state park development commission; a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whos (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whos (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana, the retention or
(D) A real property transaction including:   (i) a plachase   (ii) a lease as lessor   (iii) a lease as lessor   (iii) a lease as lessor   (iii) a lease as lessor   (iv) a transfer   (v) a reachange; or (v) a reachange; or (v) a scale by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 36-1-10 or IC 36-1-11.   (E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.   (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.   (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:   (A) the Indiana economic development (prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:   (A) the Indiana aconomic development (prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:   (B) an economic development (prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:   (C) the Indiana finance authority;   (D) the ports of Indiana;   (E) an economic development or agriculture;   (G) the Indiana Milite River state park development commission;   (a) the Indiana White River state park development commission;   (a) the Indiana State department of agriculture;   (b) the Indiana White River state park development or prospective employees.   (c) the Indiana Indiana; or a poverning body for a political subdivision.   (a) to receive information does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (s) to receive information obout and interview prospective employees are many proposed to the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.   (a) to discuss before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or
(i) a lease as lessor (ii) a lease as lessor (iii) a lease as lessoe (iv) a transfer (v) an exchange; or (v) a sale by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 36-1-10 or IC 36-1-11.  [E] School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by: (A) the Indiana economic development corporation; (B) the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (alter June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indiana; (E) accommic development commission; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana businesses, or the development or entrepreneurial activities in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discuss before a placement decision, an individual's alleged misconduct: and independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (8) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.
(ii) a lease as lessor (iii) a lease as lessor (iv) a transfer (v) an exchange; or (v)) a sale by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 36-1-10 or IC 36-1-11.  (E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by: (A) the Indiana economic development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation; (B) (after June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (b) the ports of Indiana; (E) an economic development commission; (a local economic development commission; (b) the Indiana State department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana british the River state park development commission; (h) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansion of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (S) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (e) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information about and interview prospective employees. (b) to discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (c) To discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (g) To discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statu	 	_ (_)
(iv) a transfer (v) an exchange; or (vi) a sale by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 36-1-10 or IC 36-1-11.  (E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by: (A) the Indiana economic development corporation; (B) the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indiana; (E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana White River state park development commission; a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (S) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information about and interview prospective employees. (B) to discuss before a placement decision, an inclividual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (B) To discuss before a placement decision, an inclividu
<ul> <li>(v) a sale by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 384-110 or IC 364-111.</li> <li>(E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.</li> <li>(3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.</li> <li>(4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by: (A) the Indiana economic development corporation; (B) the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indiana; (E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana withis River state park development commission; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) a commic development commission; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) a commic development commission; (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.</li> <li>(H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or</li> <li>(I) a governing body of a polit</li></ul>
(wi) a sale by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 364-1-10 or IC 364-1-11.  (E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by: (A) the Indiana economic development (before July I, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indiana; (E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana White River state park development commission: a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or I (a) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information concerning the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (B) To discuss before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a ph by the governing body up to the time a contract or option is executed by the parties. This clause does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 38-1-10 or IC 36-1-11.  (E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:  (A) the Indiana economic development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation; the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after July 2, 2020);  (C) the Indiana finance authority;  (D) the ports of Indiana;  (E) an economic development commission;  (F) the Indiana State department of agriculture;  (G) the Indiana State department of agriculture;  (G) the Indiana State department of agriculture;  (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or  (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (B) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (B) To discuss before a determination, the individual's satus as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (B) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.
does not affect a political subdivision's duty to comply with any other statute that governs the conduct of the real property transaction, including IC 36-1-10 or IC 36-1-11.  [E] School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  [3] For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  [4] Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:  (A) the Indiana economic development corporation;  (B) the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020);  (C) the Indiana finance authority;  (D) the ports of Indiana;  (E) an economic development commission;  (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture;  (G) a occurrence of the development commission;  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under state law whose of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or  (B) to discuss abody of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under to receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (B) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct; and independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (B) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees
(E) School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:  (A) the Indiana economic development corporation;  (B) the Office of fourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 0200);  (C) the Indiana finance authority;  (D) the ports of Indiana;  (E) an economic development commission;  (F) the Indiana white River state park development commission;  a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose of Indiana pusinesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or  (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (6) With respect to any individual ouer whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and  (B) to discuss before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (8) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (8) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual's employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budg competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:  (A) the Indiana economic development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020);  (C) the Indiana finance authority;  (D) the ports of Indiana;  (E) an economic development commission;  (F) the Indiana White River state park development commission;  a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or  (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's salleged misconduct: and  (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees from further consideration
competitive or bargaining reasons and may not include competitive or bargaining adversaries.  (3) For discussion of the assessment, design, and implementation of school safety and security measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:  (A) the Indiana economic development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020);  (C) the Indiana finance authority;  (D) the ports of Indiana;  (E) an economic development commission;  (F) the Indiana White River state park development commission;  a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or  (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's salleged misconduct: and  (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees from further consideration		](E)	School consolidation. However, all such such strategy discussions must be necessary for measures, plans, and systems.  (4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:  (A) the Indiana economic development corporation;  (B) the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020);  (C) the Indiana finance authority;  (D) the ports of Indiana;  (E) an economic development commission;  (F) the Indiana State department of agriculture;  (G) the Indiana White River state park development commission;  a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or  (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (G) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and  (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (B) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointes	 	_	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
(4) Interviews with industrial or commercial prospects or agents of industrial or commercial prospects by:  (A) the Indiana economic development corporation;  (B) the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020);  (C) the Indiana finance authority;  (D) the ports of Indiana;  (E) an economic development commission;  (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture;  (G) the Indiana White River state park development commission;  a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana; or of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (S) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (G) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and  (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's satus as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (8) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees.  (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration. Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective app	(3)		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
(A) the Indiana economic development corporation; the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indiana; (E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana White River state park development commission; a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose of Indiana businesses, or the development of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or (I) a governing body of a political subdivision. However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (S) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (G) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's saltuge an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process. (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: (A) develop a list of prospective appointees. (B) consider applications (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration. Notwithstanding 15 -14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further conside
(B) the office of tourism development (before July 1, 2020) or the Indiana destination development corporation (after June 30, 2020); (C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indiana; (E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana State department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana State department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana State department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana White River state park development commission; a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or (I) a governing body of a political subdivision. However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discusus, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver. (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (8) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: (A) develop a list of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  (B) consider applications (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To tra	(4)
(after June 30, 2020); (b) the Indiana finance authority; (c) the Indiana finance authority; (d) the ports of Indiana; (e) an economic development commission; (f) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (d) the Indiana State department of agriculture; (e) the Indiana White River state park development commission; (e) a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose of Indiana White River state park development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (g) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (h) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (g) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's satus as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (g) To discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (g) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (g) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (h) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: (h) develop a list of prospective appointees. (g) consider applications (h) develop a list of prospective appointees from further consideration and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the nu		1	·
(C) the Indiana finance authority; (D) the ports of Indiana; (E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana White River state park development commission; a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or (I) a governing body of a political subdivision. However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (G) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees. (B) consider applications (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration. Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of		(B)
(E) an economic development commission; (F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana White River state park development commission; a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana, or (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's saltus as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: (A) develop a list of prospective appointees. (B) consider applications (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration. Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than t		(C)
(F) the Indiana state department of agriculture; (G) the Indiana White River state park development commission; a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or a governing body of a political subdivision. However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: (A) develop a list of prospective appointees. (B) consider applications (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration. Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews		(D)	the ports of Indiana;
(G) the Indiana White River state park development commission; a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or (I) a governing body of a political subdivision. However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees. (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: (A) develop a list of prospective appointees. (B) consider applications (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.  Notwithstanding ic 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of pr
a local economic development organization that is a nonprofit corporation established under state law whose (H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or  (I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct; and (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees.  (B) consider applications  (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration. Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the r
<ul> <li>(H) primary purpose is the promotion of industrial or business development in Indiana, the retention or expansio of Indiana businesses, or the development of entrepreneurial activities in Indiana; or</li> <li>(I) a governing body of a political subdivision.</li> <li>However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under</li> <li>(5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.</li> <li>(6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:</li> <li>(A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and</li> <li>(B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.</li> <li>(7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.</li> <li>(8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.</li> <li>(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.</li> <li>(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: <ul> <li>(A) develop a list of prospective appointees.</li> <li>(B) consider applications</li> <li>(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4 (b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open</li></ul>		1(3)
(I) a governing body of a political subdivision.  However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under  (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and  (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees.  (B) consider applications  (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.  Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4 (b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.		(H)
However, this situation does not apply to any discussions regarding research that is prohibited under (5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.  (6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction:  (A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and (B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute. (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs. (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees. (B) consider applications (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.  Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4 (b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.
<ul> <li>(5) To receive information about and interview prospective employees.</li> <li>(6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: <ul> <li>(A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and</li> <li>(B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.</li> <li>(7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.</li> <li>(8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.</li> <li>(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.</li> <li>(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: <ul> <li>(A) develop a list of prospective appointees.</li> <li>(B) consider applications</li> <li>(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.</li> <li>Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.</li> <li>X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to pr</li></ul></li></ul></li></ul>		` '
<ul> <li>(6) With respect to any individual over whom the governing body has jurisdiction: <ul> <li>(A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and</li> <li>(B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.</li> <li>(7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.</li> <li>(8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.</li> <li>(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.</li> <li>(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: <ul> <li>(A) develop a list of prospective appointees.</li> <li>(B) consider applications</li> <li>(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.</li> <li>X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.</li> </ul></li></ul>	( E)
<ul> <li>(A) to receive information concerning the individual's alleged misconduct: and</li> <li>(B) to discuss, before a determination, the individual's status as an employee, a student, or an independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.</li> <li>(7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.</li> <li>(8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.</li> <li>(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.</li> <li>(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: <ul> <li>(A) develop a list of prospective appointees.</li> <li>(B) consider applications</li> <li>(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.</li> </ul> </li> <li>Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.</li> <li>X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.</li> </ul>	. ,		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
independent contractor who is a physician or a school bus driver.  (7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.  (8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees.  (B) consider applications  (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.  Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.	(3)
<ul> <li>(7) For discussion of records classified as confidential by state or federal statute.</li> <li>(8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.</li> <li>(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.</li> <li>(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: <ul> <li>(A) develop a list of prospective appointees.</li> <li>(B) consider applications</li> <li>(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.</li> <li>Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.</li> <li>X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>		` ′	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
<ul> <li>(8) To discuss before a placement decision, an individual student's abilities, past performance, behavior, and needs.</li> <li>(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.</li> <li>(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: <ul> <li>(A) develop a list of prospective appointees.</li> <li>(B) consider applications</li> <li>(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.</li> <li>Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.</li> <li>X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>		_	· ·
and needs.  (9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees.  (B) consider applications  (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.  Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.
<ul> <li>(9) To discuss a job performance evaluation of individual employees. This subdivision does not apply to a discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.</li> <li>(10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following: <ul> <li>(A) develop a list of prospective appointees.</li> <li>(B) consider applications</li> <li>(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.</li> <li>Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.</li> <li>X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>	(8)		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · discussion of the salary, compensation, or benefits of employees during a budget process.  (10) When considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:  (A) develop a list of prospective appointees.  (B) consider applications  (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.  Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.	(9)
<ul> <li>(A) develop a list of prospective appointees.</li> <li>(B) consider applications</li> <li>(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.</li> <li>Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.</li> <li>X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.</li> </ul>	\ ` '
(B) consider applications (C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.  Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.	(10	) Whe	en considering the appointment of a public official, to do the following:
(C) make one (1) initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration.  Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Notwithstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.
copying in accordance with IC 5-14-3-3 identifying information concerning prospective appointees not initially excluded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.		」(∪) Notw	withstanding IC 5-14-3-4(b)(12), a governing body may release and shall make available for inspection and may not reduce the number of prospective appointees to fewer than three (3) unless there are fewer than three (3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.
<ul> <li>(3) prospective appointees. Interviews of prospective appointees must be conducted at a meeting that is open to the public.</li> <li>X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.</li> </ul>		exclu	aded from further consideration. An initial exclusion of prospective appointees from further consideration the public.  X (11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.
<ul> <li>(11) To train school board members with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the members as public officials.</li> <li>(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.</li> <li>(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.</li> </ul>
members as public officials.  (12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.	X (11
(12) To prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under IC 25.  (13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.	\''	-	·
(13) To discuss information and intelligence intended to prevent, mitigate, or respond to the threat of terrorism.	(12	?) To p	prepare or score examinations used in issuing licenses, certificates, permits, or registrations under
1 To train members of a board of aviation commissioners appointed under 1C 8-22-2 or members of an airport		• authority board appointed under IC 8-22-3 with an outside consultant about the performance of the role of the	(14 members as public officials. A board may hold not more than one (1) executive session per calendar year under			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · this subdivision.